

ODD FELLOWS HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICE

Takes Place in Mount Vernon M. E. Church.

WARDEN READS DEAD LIST

The Rev. W. V. Tudor Preaches Annual Sermon on "Charity." Exercises in Detail.

In accordance with the custom in vogue throughout the United States, the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of this jurisdiction held their annual memorial exercises last night at the Mt. Vernon Place Methodist Episcopal Church under the auspices of Canton Lodge, No. 1. Grand Master William H. McNeil presided.

Seated on the platform with Mr. McNeil were Frederick A. Siler, grand representative and acting chaplain of the Odd Fellows of the District; the Rev. W. V. Tudor, of Richmond, Va., and the Rev. William F. Locke, pastor of the Mt. Vernon Place M. E. Church, and many prominent members of the order.

Grand Master Presides.

Grand Master McNeil, in opening the services, said: "We are assembled to do reverence to the memories of the twenty-seven brothers and sisters who have departed this life during the past year." The names of the departed Odd Fellows and the lodges to which the belonged were announced by Grand Warden Philip Walker as follows:

W. N. H. Maack and S. E. Shepherd, Central, No. 1; Joseph H. Deneane, William H. Frazier, and David J. Bishop, Washington, No. 6; Robert Clarke and Fred Reh, Eastern, No. 7; W. H. H. Cissell and John H. Mitchell, Harmony, No. 9; Frederick M. Detweiler, Jeremiah Indermuer, and Henry L. Davidson, Columbia, No. 10; James T. Cross, Temple Belt, Walter E. Williams, William W. Follow, William Paul Brown, and Ferdinand Fusc, Union, No. 11; W. H. Howes, Friendship, No. 12; W. H. Burdette and Henry C. Volkman, Covenant, No. 13; Edward H. Sipe and Frederick Breslau, Beacon, No. 15; Truman W. Beckett and Samuel J. Halslet, Metropolis, No. 16; John T. Gibson, Salem, No. 22; and William Bennett, Magennu Encampment, No. 3.

The names of the deceased members of Rebekah Lodge were read by Mrs. Susie R. Duffey, as follows: Mrs. Belle Carter, Mrs. Nora Haller, Mrs. Addie Kink, and Mrs. Rosa A. Pague.

The Annual Sermon.

The Rev. W. V. Tudor preached the sermon, his text being "Charity suffereth long and is kind."

The services were closed by a prayer led by Mr. Siler, an ode by the choir and benediction by the Rev. William F. Locke.

AGENTS PAY A VISIT TO "CAMP GOOD WILL"

Report It in Much Better Condition Than Last Year—Improvements Made.

In preparation for the outing parties at Camp Good Will in Rock Creek Park, agents of the Associated Charities spent Saturday afternoon and Sunday at the camp. They slept in tents and went through all the experiences which will be enjoyed by the regular outing parties. They report that the camp is in much better condition in every way than it was during its first season last year.

A great many pieces of simple apparatus have been constructed for the children's play. The eight sleeping tents have been floored and the dining tent also is provided with a good floor.

Three handsome cows, "The Doctor's Herd," give plentiful supplies of rich milk. A hen house full of chickens provides fresh eggs, and the three-acre garden furnishes fresh vegetables. The rabbits have multiplied, and some anonymous friend of the children has sent out a cute little monkey with cart and harness complete, which affords means of enjoyable, though always deliberate, transportation.

Twenty or thirty swings of all sizes, two sand boxes, four see-saw ladders, traveling rings, a horizontal pole, a jumping frame, numerous hammocks, a chute, and a punching bag add to the facilities for play. There are also a large baseball field, a court for basketball, lawn tennis, croquet grounds, and two shadow boxing rings.

Over this camp, which is ideally planned for the children's pleasure, a large American flag was raised on Sunday morning upon a flag staff, made of a slender tree cut from the woods nearby. Commissioner John Eddie was one of the many visitors at the camp on Sunday, and he expressed himself as greatly pleased with the developments.

John B. Sieman, Jr., chairman of the summer outing committee of the Associated Charities, expressed thanks for generous gifts to the fund and says that it is now about half completed. The following contributions have been recently sent to the committee:

J. B. Nichols, $5; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd H. Chandler, $5; Miss Marie L. Fout, $2; Ella C. Clephane, $2; W. O. Ison, $1; J. William Henry, $5; Mary I. Nourse, $2.50; James B. MEMBER OF THE EXPEDITION TO MAKE TREATY WITH JAPAN

DANIEL SAYERS CHRISTY.

Veteran of Mexican War, He Came to Washington in 1861 and Accepted a Position in the Postoffice Department.

EIGHTY-THREE YEARS LIMIT OF HIS LIFE

"Father" Christy, Prominent Member of Hamline M. E. Church, Claimed by Death—Long a Familiar Figure on the Streets.

At the ripe age of eighty-three, Daniel Sayers Christy, a veteran of the Mexican war, and member of the expedition under Commodore James Eddie, sent by this country to Japan to negotiate a commercial treaty with that government in 1866, died at his home, 1107 Eighth street northwest, Saturday night.

Mr. Christy has been a resident of Washington for over forty years, coming to this city in 1861 to accept a position in the Postoffice Department, which position he held up to a short time before his death, having to resign on account of ill health.

He was an active church worker, being one of the twenty-two who founded Hamline Methodist Episcopal Church, at the corner of Ninth and P streets northwest.

west, in 1865. He was one of the leading spirits of that church, and was looking forward to the coming fortieth anniversary of the church on July 2.

Mr. Christy, who was known as "Father" Christy to his friends, on account of his patriarchal appearance, was long a familiar figure on the streets of the city.

Mr. Christy is survived by a widow and one son. His son Jesse, who is a resident of Omaha, Neb., arrived in the city this morning, having been summoned by his father's death.

The funeral services will be held in Hamline Church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment being at Glenwood. The services at the church will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. Doney, the pastor, assisted by Dr. Naylor, a former pastor, and now presiding elder of the Washington district.

John Anderson Returns To Washington Club

Big Right Fielder Made Hurry-Up Trip to Worcester to See Wife, Who Is Seriously Ill—Manager Stahl Returns.

False alarm!

All the stories about the desertion of John Anderson, the Nationals' outfielder, who, it was said, had jumped the local club to play in the Tri-State (outlaw) League, have been nailed and the big Swede is now on his way to our fair city to rejoin the team. He will probably be in his accustomed place in the garden this afternoon.

Saturday morning Anderson received a telegram from relatives saying that his wife had a relapse and was in a dangerous condition. The big fellow immediately went to the park and gathered together all his belongings and left on the first train for his Worcester home.

He found his spouse in a serious condition and had her taken to the hospital. It was not until yesterday that he had any intimation that he had jumped, and he immediately called up local headquarters and assured the management that he would return immediately.

Manager Stahl returned from Atlantic City yesterday and was greatly surprised when he heard all the sensational stories about Anderson. In the talk which he had with the big Swede over the phone Anderson told Stahl that he would probably be here in time for today's contest.

While much benefited by his sojourn to the coast Jake Stahl is far from being in first-class condition and he will not attempt to play this afternoon.

So great has been the young manager's worry since he left the club that he is glad to be back, and while he cannot assist by actually playing for a few days he will manage from the bench and hopes to break the losing streak.

Tom Hughes will be on the rubber for the Nationals this afternoon, while Dusty Rhoades is slated to twirl for Cleveland.

The condition of Hunter Hill, the third baseman, remains the same, and it is unlikely that he will be able to get back into the game for at least a week. He is confined to his bed with an attack of malarial fever. He was suffering from this complaint for several days before he would quit the team, but he will keep away from the ball yard this time until he has fully recovered.

George Hill will be on third this afternoon and Punch Knoll will remain on the park in time to go in this afternoon. Rothgeb, the big University of Illinois recruit who made such a favorable impression on Saturday, will guard right field.

At the batting practice at the park this morning Heyde was struck on the side of the head by a foul tip, but no serious damage was done.

ANIMALS COMING FROM AUSTRALIA

Consul at New Castle Sends Some Rare Specimens.

FAWNS BORN; BIRDS HATCHED

Number of Visitors to Zoo Park Increases—Among Them Parties of Tourists.

The collection of Australian animals at the National Park Zoological Gardens is the largest in this country and undoubtedly larger than the famous collection in the Royal Regent Park, London. A valuable addition to this collection is expected soon, as a consignment of animals is now on the way from the United States consul at New Castle, near New South Wales.

Just what species the animals are cannot be determined as the bill of lading, which has already arrived, only gives the number. The United States consul at Maracaibo, Venezuela, has also furnished many valuable specimens this season.

The Barasingha Bear.

New animals still continue to arrive. During the past few days a Barasingha bear was received from a London dealer as well as twelve pine snakes from New Jersey. The stock is still making frequent visits and during the past week births of fallow, Virginia, and mule deer, occurred. On the 9th of this month an elk was born and four mallard ducks hatched and on the 11th, two mule deer made their appearance.

A few visitors who were fortunate enough to be present the other morning witnessed an amusing scene. When the warm weather sets in it is customary to change the animals from their winter quarters to cages in the open where they can get plenty of fresh air and sunshine.

Crane Was Country.

The whooping crane, that has been in the Zoo for many years, is one of the most obstinate birds in the collection, and when the animals and birds were changed to their summer quarters he refused to be moved, and sat defiantly on his perch and gave a most vicious yell whenever approached. There he stayed for several days, but the calling of the other birds from the outside, and the empty cages, made him dissatisfied, and, after repeated attempts, managed to bound over the side of his enclosure, and, spying one of the keepers, followed him about like a dog. When the door of his summer quarters was opened he walked in as meekly as a lamb.

The large number of out-of-town visitors to the Zoo gives evidence of the many excursionists who are coming to Washington. It is no uncommon occurrence for a party of fifty to two hundred sightseers to visit the animals in a body. They usually make their identity known, and in one case a large delegation came from Oregon.

SAM L. QUINBY DEAD; WAS YALE CAPTAIN

NEW YORK, June 18.—Word has reached this city that the death in Cuba of Samuel L. Quinby, who was captain of the Yale baseball team in 1895, his parents, who live at 317 West Seventy-sixth street, have not yet received particulars of their son's death. Quinby was part owner of a sugar plantation in Cuba. He was born in 1875 and was a prominent college athlete, was a member of Squadron A during the Spanish-American war and saw service in Porto Rico. Shortly after the war he bought the sugar plantation.

ALEXANDRIA NEWS NOTES

ACCIDENTAL POISONING.

M. B. Harlow, late city treasurer, president of the Business Men's League of Alexandria, now lies very ill at his home in Alfred street, the result of a mistake in taking a dose of medicine this morning, about 7 o'clock. Mr. Harlow, needing some medicine, took a bottle which he supposed contained Epsom salts, and administered a dose to himself. The immediate effects showed a mistake, and he discovered he had taken oxalic acid. Dr. M. D. Delaney was sent for at once, and on his arrival administered the usual antidotes of lime water, milk, etc., and used a stomach pump. He succeeded in emptying the stomach before it is believed the oxalic acid had sufficiently entered the system to produce serious results. Mr. Harlow is now sleeping quietly, and it is believed that there will be no serious consequences.

FUNERAL OF MR. PETTY.

The funeral of the late William B. Petty will take place from his late home in South Fairfax street, this afternoon. The Rev. P. P. Phillips, of St. Paul's Church, will officiate, and the interment will be made in the Union Cemetery.

BANK SWINDLER STILL MISSING.

Lieutenant Smith, of the Alexandria police force, said today that he has heard nothing definite yet of A. H. Bardeen, who is wanted by the Alexandria police for cashing a draft at the Alexandria National Bank, which has been returned by the company on which it was drawn as no good. The lieutenant denies the statement made by Attorney Carlin that the bank had not taken out a warrant for Bardeen's arrest. He says that Mr. Carlin made several corrections in the warrant and knew all about its having been issued.

SUNDAY CHURCH SERVICES.

The Rev. J. F. Burks occupied the pulpit at Grace Protestant Episcopal Church last night.

The Rev. H. St. George Tucker, president of St. Paul's College, Tokyo, occupied the pulpit at the morning service at Christ Protestant Episcopal Church.

CUBAN REPUBLIC PAYS GOMEZ HONOR

Appropriates $15,000 for a National Funeral.

HIS BODY LIES IN STATE

All Flags Fly at Half-Mast and Public Buildings Are Draped.

HAVANA, June 18.—The body of Gen. Maximo Gomez, who died Saturday, has been lying in state in the principal hall of the palace since 7 o'clock Sunday morning. A guard of honor surrounds the coffin.

There was a continuous stream of people filing past the body yesterday, eager to take a last look at the revolutionist to whom Cuba owed so much. In this, however, they were disappointed, as the face was covered. It is understood that this was done at the request of General Gomez before he died.

There was an immense number of wreaths from Havana and other places. President Palma has given up his working quarters in the palace to the family of General Gomez.

Tribute From Palma.

The Official Gazette contains a message from President Palma to the Cuban people. He says:

"Maj. Gen. Maximo Gomez, chief of the liberating army, is dead. There is not a single heart in Cuba which does not feel wounded by so rude a blow. The loss is irreparable. All the nation is in mourning, and as all are identified with the same sentiment of profound sorrow the government need not stimulate it in order that it be universal."

Legal Holidays Declared.

Congress has declared Monday and Tuesday days of national mourning. It also provided that the body of General Gomez should receive military honors corresponding with those that would be paid on the death of a President of the republic, and that his funeral should be of a national character, for which $15,000 was appropriated. The armed forces of the republic will wear mourning for nine days.

The funeral will take place at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Today all flags are flying at half-mast, and the public buildings are draped.

EDUCATING THE SUBURBANITE.

"On one of the New Jersey trolley lines they have installed a small traveling library for the benefit of the through passengers."

"We used to have one on our line. There was a copy of Hoyle and six packs of cards, but somebody stole the Hoyle and the cards were worn out."
